Quote:

"Some people can deliver truth, but do so with no love or grace or respect...Many people can give kindness, grace, and affirmation, but they can't fully deliver what is best for others because they can't present the truth. Great leadership...true leadership...does both."

- Facing the Blitz, Strategy #3: Reach out to Others

The Playbook:

If you listen to constructive criticism, you will be at home among the wise.
(Proverbs 15:31, NLT)

Time Out:

1. What's harder for you? Speaking the truth or speaking in a loving way?
2. What's a truth you have needed to share to a friend or family member?

Go Deep

Check out how Jeff's wife Stacy applies this principle to parenting in Chapter 8 of Facing the Blitz.

Make it your goal to bless people, to build people, to lift people to be their best. Forward this life-changing principle to a friend or family member today.
